The Tribute

The Melody Burton Scholarship for Future Teachers was established in 1995 by the Foundation for Orange County Public Schools, Inc. The scholarship commemorates the life and education of Melody Burton, a teacher in Orange County Public Schools district who lost her battle with cancer in 1993.

The scholarship is administered by the Human Resources Department of Orange County Public Schools and was funded by a grant from the Foundation for Orange County Public Schools, Inc.

The purpose of the Melody Burton Scholarship is to increase the number of high quality teachers available for Orange County school district classrooms. Critical areas are identified each year by the school district. The endorsement will provide financial assistance for the OCPS paraprofessional or classroom assistant (program assistant) interested in teaching in these critical areas.

The Agreement

The scholarship recipient (s) are expected to teach at least three years in Orange County Public Schools following completion of Baccalaureate Degree in Education. The tuition loan will be forgiven upon completion of three years in a full-time instructional position with the Orange County Public School District.

If the Melody Burton scholar does not accept employment with Orange County Public Schools or fails to complete the program, repayment of the scholarship is required. The loan will be forgiven if the school system is unable to offer employment within one year of program completion.

IMPORTANT ELIGIBILITY NOTICE:

- Scholar must be currently enrolled in a college or university in order to qualify for the scholarship.
- Applicant must be in a paraprofessional or classroom assistant (program assistant) position currently working in Orange County Public School, and must have completed an A.A degree or have at least 60 college credit hours but not have a Bachelors degree.
- Preference will be given to applicants currently working in a “high-needs” school.
- Financial assistance for tuition shall be awarded based on the number of qualified recipients per year.

Application Checklist

- ⇒ Complete application Pages 3-5
- ⇒ An official statement of all financial assistance applied for or awarded from the college/university. Must indicate the original amount, amount awarded, and the remaining balance (what you owe).
- ⇒ Attach college transcript (s) showing 60 credit hours or an AA degree earned.
- ⇒ Three (3) letters of recommendations from community leaders, school administrators, teachers and/or employers.
- ⇒ One page essay responding to the question, “Why I have chosen a career in education and how will this scholarship benefit me?” Be sure to include the degree you are seeking and critical subject area you would like to teach.

Valencia Foundation

The Valencia Foundation seeks to provide sufficient scholarships to ensure that no Central Florida resident is denied access to at least an associate degree. Endowments provide Valencia with predictable and assured resources of financial assistance that guarantee economic access to higher education for those most in need.

The Selection Process

Selecting the recipient (s) is administered by the Human Resources Department at OCPS. A panel will select the recipient (s). Inquires about this scholarship and requests for an application should be made directly to:
