

Orange County Public Schools
Ronald Blocker Educational Leadership Center
445 W. Amelia Street
Orlando, Florida, 32801

The OCPS Parent Academy is an educational resource for all families and schools. It was established in 2013 to promote student success, parent growth, provide vital information and to offer opportunities for connections to school and community resources.

2014-2015

- There are seven academies planned for this school year
- Parents will be able to select three breakout sessions
- The participation goal for this year is 9,000 or more
- There are 59,117 students in Title I schools
- There are 208 schools in the district
- 105 of 208 schools are Title I schools
- 63.98% District Poverty Average
- Academies are held in various schools and locations within district

2013-2014

- There were six academies
- Parents were able to select two breakout sessions
- The data revealed overall participation was 3,107
- There were 58,870 students in Title I schools
- There were 206 schools in the district
- There were 105 of 206 schools were Title I
- 65.23% District Poverty Average
- The academies are held in various schools within the district

Contact Us

We welcome your support! If you would like to support the OCPS Parent Academy, please contact us.

Director: Dr. Joy Taylor, Title I Services

OCPS Parent Academy Community Engagement Staff:

Evelyn Baldon	Shawn Sanchez
Sandra Dillard	Katrina Summerville
Angela Lockley	Tricia Travis
Valerie Moore	Marie Valletta
Maria Rivera	Monica Washington

Contact Information: OCPS Parent Academy/Community Engagement Team at parentacademy@ocps.net or 407-417-3300

Website: www.parentacademy.ocps.net